

Eaton, Sherwin-Williams, Lubrizol among 100 Best Corporate Citizens: Business Notebook

By Plain Dealer business staff

March 07, 2010, 2:00AM

HONORS

Corporate Responsibility Magazine's 11th annual list of 100 Best Corporate Citizens includes Eaton Corp., No. 41; Sherwin-Williams Co., 68; and Lubrizol Corp., No. 86. Hewlett-Packard Co. ranked No. 1. The list is based on publicly available information about large-cap Russell 1000 companies in seven areas: the environment, climate change, human rights, philanthropy, employee relations, financial performance and governance.

Canton advertising and public relations agency Innis Maggiore won the most awards, 15, in the Canton Advertising Federation's annual ADDY Awards.

Supply & Demand Chain Executive magazine named David Clevenger, vice president of Corporate United, a group purchasing organization in Rocky River, as a Pro to Know.

OPENING

Window World of Cleveland has opened at 8001 Sweet Valley Dr., Suite 5A, Valley View. 216-447-0448.

REBRANDING

Park Place International, a Chagrin Falls data center hardware maintenance company, has changed its name to Park Place Technologies. 1-800-931-3366.

EXPANSION

The Reserves Network, a Fairview Park temporary staffing service, has added TRN Technical, a division that focuses on consulting, contract and temporary jobs for technical, professional and managerial workers.

ACQUISITION

Private equity firm The Riverside Co. bought Library Journal, School Library Journal and Library Hotline and added them to its Media Source portfolio company, which markets materials to libraries.

MILESTONE

Watt Printers, a Cleveland commercial printing company in business 117 years, is marking 25 years of ownership by John Gergel, president, and Craig Kellem, executive vice president.

CONTRACTS

E.I. Du Pont De Nemours & Co., Cleveland: $90,300 from the Defense Logistics Agency's Defense Supply Center, Richmond, Va., for sleeve bushings.

Send items to Notebook, 1801 Superior Ave., Cleveland, OH 44114, or e-mail them. Include "Notebook" in the subject line.

© 2010 cleveland.com. All rights reserved.